BL. MARIA RESTITUTA KAFKA

Born in 1894, Sister Restituta Kafka grew up in Vienna. She became a Franciscan Sister of Christian Charity, and worked as a nurse. When Austria was annexed to Germany, she resisted the Nazis through small acts of piety.

Eventually, her little actions made a big difference and she was arrested and executed by the Nazis.

She was beatified in 1998 by Pope St. John Paul II
